

Walking Surface Safety Quiz

Employee Name:

1. What are the three main causes of slips & trips?
  - a. Lack of awareness, Ice, & Snow
  - b. Lack of awareness, Not wearing proper foot wear, & Occupational hazards
  - c. Lack of awareness, Environmental/Engineering factors, & Occupational hazards
  - d. Wet floors, Ice, & Environmental/Engineering factors
2. The term Housekeeping is more than just keeping a clean workplace, which of the items below would be considered a good safety habit?
  - a. Clean up a coffee spill
  - b. Secure cords/wires if they are placed in walkways
  - c. Remove clutter around your workplace
  - d. Salt icy walking areas
  - e. All of the above
3. Who is responsible for reporting environmental & engineering factors that pose walking surfaces hazards
  - a. Custodians
  - b. Safety Officers
  - c. Risk Managers
  - d. The one who finds it (me & you)
4. If your job requires you to work in an area where it is common to have wet or slick walking surfaces, how can you apply safety to reduce the risk of falling or slipping?
  - a. Only walk on the ball of your feet
  - b. Wear high-top foot wear
  - c. Wear slip-resistant foot wear
  - d. Keep the working/walking area clear
5. If you find yourself heading for a fall, two last second ways to avoid an injury are to:
  1. Attempt to tumble to the ground by letting your body crumple and roll.
  2. Tuck your arms in close to your body instead of reaching out to break the fall.
  - a. True
  - b. False